DANCING EXHIBITION TO COME SOON

On Friday, August 28th. Shoreham will be entertained by the young rug-cutters of the Village. These youngsters have been devoting much of their vacation time to the rehearsing of the numbers which will appear in the coming exhibition.

Rhumba, tango, waltz, foxtrot, trio ballet, tap dance routines are but a few of the features of the evening. Miss Jantzner should be complimented for her splendid work of planning and directing this undertaking.

As in previous years there will be no admission charge but only club members are permitted to attend.

Each individual number will be accompanied by a fitting costume, to add to the setting.

Further details will be given in a later issue of the "Shorehamitem" concerning the exact time it will take place, the names of the people taking part, and the exact numbers each of the couples will do.

CLUB ENTERTAINMENT

There will be a most delightful program at the Shoreham Country Club this Saturday night. Our president has made arrangements for Miss Joan McGrath (popular 11 year old radio and stage star) to entertain with ballet, tap and acrobatic dances and piano numbers. In addition there will be singing by our quartet as well as all others attending the dance and which is becoming more and more popular.

If you are looking for a grand party be sure and attend the Club this Saturday night.

The entertainment will start promptly at eleven o'clock

WARNING

Make sure your head-lights are properly blacked out ( 3/4 the way down from the top of the light - 3/4 " strip left clear - blacked out the rest of the way down.

SERVICE —

Before buying in New York, won't you please give L. Okst Liquor Store, Port Jefferson Station, a chance to quote prices. Come in or phone P. J. 410.

Have you tried this? Reception punch - place two pounds granulated sugar in a bowl. Cover sugar with hot water and stir until dissolved. When cool put it in a punch bowl and add a quart of orange juice, one quart lemon juice, and one pint cold orange pekoe tea, two quarts dry gin, and one quart Sloe gin. Stir thoroughly and add one block of ice. Pour in one quart ginger-ale and one quart of carbonated water and stir lightly. Add sliced fruit and maraschino cherries. This will make two gallons sufficient for two servings each for thirty five to forty people.
