NUMBER V

AT THE MERCY OF THE WIND

Last Saturday, July 23, two sailing races were scheduled, beginning at 11:00 A.M. At that time, there was a slight uncooperative breeze from the West, so the race was postponed until 2:00 P.M. Hopeful skippers then found a stronger North-east wind and moderate sea (otherwise observed as non-committal).

Five Flying Terns entered the race. Bill Garvin and his wife, Marion, finished first in the Pegasus. "Only a second later" Gil Frei and Crew Peter Garvin crossed the finish line in the Mallard. Third was Horton Johnson and his brother, Richard, in the Sheldrake.

In the vicinity of Sill's Rock, the Harlequin (Skipper Bob Louttit and Crew Jay Vermylen) on a port tack, hit Allan Conger's Chicken broadside. The boat was swamped, but Dr. Conger finished the race after some hurried bailing, with his son, David.

NOTICE

Starting this weekend there will be a police guard at the Shoreham Country Club who will issue 1966 auto stickers to all paid-up members upon presentation of proper identification (auto registration, license).

The guard will be supplied with a list of fully paid members. No others will be allowed to use any of the Club facilities.

If you are delinquent in payment, please do not expect to be admitted.

President

William J. Garvin M.D.
Chairman, Rules Committee

RACQUET TEAM BOWS (4-1)

Shoreham's Tennis Squad was defeated last Saturday by a fine group of players from the Three Village Tennis Club. Playing number one, John Bates was the only Shoreham player to produce a win as he defeated Andrew Kevey in a gruelling three hour match (6-3, 2-6, 3-2 Default). Allan Shapiro lost a close contest to Peter Mantius (7-5, 7-5), while Roy Schweyer was easy prey for Lyn Lee (6-1, 6-1).

Shoreham's two doubles teams lost by identical scores (6-4, 6-1) as Joseph Arnabaldi and Arnold Sandberg defeated our number one team, Tom Adams and Paul Vermylen, while Ed Barnhart and Jim McCrystal fell to Robert Hulse and Richard Forshay.

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS ABOUT SHOREHAM

by John Smith, Peter J. Brown, and Joseph Jones.

McCrystal's tin boat, the "Huffin", is the first boat in Shoreham to try an experimental resin glue on the letters. So far, the letters have lasted five years.

About 1920, Shoreham was a haven for butterfly catchers and croquet players.

A cemetery was discovered beneath the Savoia house recently when some digging was completed near their dining porch. Four tombstones were found, dating from 1770.

Pearl bearing oysters and clams used to breed in Long Island Sound, but they were almost totally made extinct by an unknown disease. The clams, however, are now returning.

In one Shoreham house, (the owner wishes to remain unnamed), the residents upon moving in found skulls and bones in their attic.

ANOTHER MYSTERY PERSONALITY!!

This week's character is:

1. of Egyptian descent
2. expert at hieroglyphics
3. an extreme hypochondriac
4. quite old
5. and lives in a huge stone mansion.

Have any idea yet? To give you further aid, we will say that our friend is about six feet, five inches tall with black eyes, a light complexion, and a muscular build. He walks rather slowly and with a limp while, in addition, he has a permanent broken arm which he maintains cannot heal.

Answer in next week's SHOREHAM ITEM.

Last week's mystery character was your favorite and mine, that tree-swinging, grape vine climbing Lord Graystoke, better known as Tarzan of the Apes!
