Garden Party Last Week-end Big Success

Babe Koch Wins Beauty Contest; McGahens 2d

Clowns Steal Show With Ti-Pi-Tin

A gay time was had last Saturday afternoon by the two hundred people who attended the garden party at the home of Mrs. Walter Reid Callender. Mr. Warden was the first person to begin the fun when he opened his game rooms on the side lawn. The younger children played games of skill and ping pong and pool while the older children sat down at a big table and played bingo.

All this relatively quiet game playing was put in the background upon the arrival of four clowns on their model "T" Ti-Pi-Tin coaxing it along with a "Hot Dog", but the poor creature gave out right in front of the house and lifted up traffic on some time while different members of the merry crew tried to start it. After the crank was almost worn out, the old crate burst into action with an explosion that threw the clowns in a heap on the drive. The clowns had a hard time getting past the gate because they could not find their tickets and spent all kinds of time switching boxes of balloons and toy aeroplanes from one man to the other while they looked through their pockets. For the benefit of the public it might be well to state that the clowns were Otto Hagenah, Tom and Bob Hughes and Jim O'Brien.

The Bathing Beauty Contest, in which Miss Gladys Koch was the winner by fate's decree, was run between the most beautiful of Shoreham's girls. The second and third winners were Miss Jane and Miss Peggy McGahen. The Fashion Show which followed displayed summer and fall gowns from the Shapel Gown Shop in New York. These gowns were well modeled by Shoreham girls and were later auctioned off by Dr. Henry Kohlmann. Two of the auctioned gowns appeared at the Shoreham Country Club dance that evening, one being worn by Miss Mary Jane Cassidy, the other by Mrs. Frederick W. Frei.

The raffles were drawn after the fashion show, Gilbert Frei winning the ham, A. J. Sackett, the basket of hors d'oeuvres, and the weather vane was won by Mrs. E. Z. Leslie. Sales of flowers and gifts went over well with the returns from these tables being big. An unusually attractive assortment of gifts sold very rapidly and many took the opportunity to add rare and hardy plants to their gardens by making purchases at the plant booth.

As a last event the horse race

Mrs. Sackett Hurt While Swimming On South Shore

Lure of Sea Gets Better Of Shorehamite; Results In Badly Twisted Knee

Mrs. A. J. Sackett met misfortune last Friday afternoon when the lure of the sea got the better of her. While swimming in the ocean Mrs. Sackett twisted her knee so badly that she was in bed for several days, and as a result she was unable to attend the garden party given Saturday by the Shoreham Garden Club, of which organization she is president.

Mrs. Sackett was having luncheon with her friend, Mrs. Cook, who was visiting in Shoreham, at Westhampton. After their luncheon they drove to the Westhampton Beach with the idea of merely seeing the ocean and driving right home with things for the garden party. But when Mrs. Sackett saw the ocean and the fine breakers that were rolling in, nothing would do but she must go in for a swim. After swimming for awhile she noticed the approach of an extra large breaker and turned to protect the leg that had been broken last year. But before she had

GARDEN CLUB MEETINGS

The third general meeting of the Shoreham Garden Club for this year will be held at the Shoreham Country Club on Friday, July 29, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. This meeting will be preceded by an executive committee meeting at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sackett at 12 o'clock noon. At the general meeting in the afternoon a report on the garden party will be given including the treasurer's report which will be of great interest to all.

The second in a series of lectures by Mrs. Roy Lincoln at the Bethpage Country Club will be given on Monday, July 25. This lecture comes under the series "Decorative Arrangement of Flowers," and is this time on "Organization with Color."

BRIDGE PARTY AT HOSPITAL

A bridge party will be held for the benefit of the Mather Memorial Hospital on Wednesday afternoon, July 27. The party will be held on the hospital lawn in Port Jefferson. In case of rain the party will be held on the next clear afternoon. The tickets are one dollar and are being sold by the wives of doctors connected with the hospital, and by the wives of the trustees. Mrs. Forrest Raynor, the wife of the hospital president, is the chairman for the bridge party, with Miss De Young as co-chairman.

Headdress Party at the Club Tomorrow Night

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING

Since Mrs. Sackett, the president of the Shoreham Garden Club, was home in bed with a twisted knee, she was unable to attend the garden party or to help in the final preparations for the party. In a letter to the editor she requested that a statement be made in her behalf and in behalf of the Garden Club thanking all those who helped to make the garden party the great success it was.

House Committee to Hold Bridge Luncheon At Club Tues. Morning

A bridge luncheon will be held at the Shoreham Country Club Tuesday morning, July 26 at 11 o'clock. This party is similar to the morning bridge luncheons that were held at the Country Club last year and other years. It is being sponsored by the house committee under the direction of Mrs. F. A. Koch and Mrs. Cary D. Waters. Bridge will be played from 11 until 1, and will be followed by a luncheon.

As it is not the desire of the committee to make any profit on this party, tables are only three dollars, that is each single ticket is only 75 cents. If any one so desires she may attend only the luncheon at one o'clock for fifty cents.

On the back of the tickets is the following list of things to be brought to the party: Table cover and napkins, 8 spoons, 4 forks, 8 plates, and 4 cups and saucers. Also add to this list cards and tallies.

MILES HAS ACCIDENT

J. Thomas Miles had an accident with his car near Mattituck last Saturday. While Mr. Miles was heading west two cars approached him on a hill, one trying to pass the other. To avoid a direct collision, Mr. Miles turned into a field and his car turned gently over. There was no damage to either Mr. Miles or the car, but the farmer wanted to sue Mr. Miles for hurting his potatoes. Mr. Miles found several Polish farmers with whom he does business near there and they all talked Polish to the farmer and that was the last he heard of the farmer trying to sue him. Mr. Miles righted his car and went on but the delay made him too late for the garden party.

Balloon Dance To Be Feature Of the Evening

Everyone Must Have Some Kind of Hat In Order to Enter

Prize For Best Headdress Will Be Awarded

Several years ago the ace comedian, Jack Benny, had on his program a series of gags that began "Hair, hair, what's on your head?" The answer to this question will be found at the "headdress" party to be held at the Shoreham Country Club this Saturday night. At the "headdress" party held several years ago every one had a lot of fun and there were many very good headdresses, one of the most original and simplest, was the lamp shade which was worn by Edwin Belknap.

At the dance Saturday night no one will be allowed in the club without some special form of headdress, even if it is only a yachting cap. There will be prizes for the best headdress worn at this dance. The judging for the prize will take place at 11:30 p. m.

To add to the fun of the evening, the entertainment committee has planned to have a balloon dance with a prize for the winning couple in this event. There may be other features similar to the balloon dance, if it can be arranged by the committee, and if the people want it. In fact, it might even be possible for a party as gala as a New Year's Eve party—only this will be in July.

NEW POLICEMAN

David Pallister has been made a policeman in the village of Shoreham and was duly sworn in as a policeman several weeks ago. His special assignment is to help in the patrol of the beach.

As a point of history it might be cited that one of the first of the Shoreham police and the holder of police badge number one is Mrs. Alfred (Bloss) Varian.

GUESTS AT THE DOVE AND TURTLE THIS WEEK-END

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, Mr. Edw. Fadiman, Lt.-Col. Ley, Mr. Stahl from Amherdam, Mrs. Burten, Mr. Walter Walters, and Mr. E. Cassidy.

LATE AGAIN

According to the announcement of the Shoreham Country Club the Saturday night dances are to start at ten o'clock and run until two o'clock. The orchestra is paid to play from ten until two, but did anyone ever look into the club house about ten o'clock and see all the fun people were having? The orchestra is there and they might even be playing. There are the white coated waiters standing in their places ready to give service to the club members and their guests. And Oh, yes there are a few of these club members in the lounge waiting for things to happen,—all ready for a good time. Before they had come to the club they had been at home bored with themselves, waiting until it was time to go to the dance, but even when they get there, they are still sitting, still bored, just waiting for something to happen. Ten-thirty comes along and the orchestra with nothing else to do comes and sits in the lounge or strolls on the bridge. About eleven o'clock some more people come strolling into the club and the orchestra, upon seeing them come, goes over and starts to play, much refreshed after their hour of relaxation. But does every member get there even at this time—an hour after the time set for the opening of the dance? Oh, no,—the party will not begin full-force until eleven-thirty.

Where has everyone been? If the truth were known, most of the people have been waiting so that things will have had a chance to get started at the club before they take the trouble to get there. This seems rather foolish,—that between one-quarter and one-third of the music for which the club members are paying is being wasted.

This is not a new problem here at Shoreham, it seems that for a long time people have been coming late to dances. In an editorial last year the editor touched on this problem in the following manner:

"Shorehamites have one characteristic which is not so good and that is their habit of always being late. Of special note is being late to the dances. There are some of the older people who like to get home from the dances in time to get a little sleep. The rest should give these people a break by getting to the club early so that things start to happen on time. The dances start at 10:00, but everyone says that no one gets there until 11:00, so they will not go down until 11:15. As a result no one is there until 11:30. The dance this Saturday begins at 10:00, let's see that everyone is there on time. If everyone makes it a point to get there at 10:00, then we had better all rush to get there early to get a table. As a result, if each one is trying to get there ahead of the other, then everyone will surely be there by 10:15, things will start on time, and a better time will be had by all. There is one thing that keeps people from getting to the dance on time—the cocktail parties before. If these parties must be, then the host should see that everyone starts for the dance at 10:00. And remember everyone is going to be there at 10:00 tomorrow night."

The favorable result of this editorial was immediately noticed but it was short-lived, as can be seen by the showing this year. It is hoped that if this is brought to the attention of Shorehamites again they will consider the money that they are practically throwing away and there will be more lasting results. This should be made the special concern of each one of us, and beginning Saturday will everyone make it a point to try and get to the dance at ten o'clock or as soon after ten as possible. This week especially try to get there early because the judging for the best head-dress is at 11:30 o'clock.

SOUNDING OUT OLD FIELD—STONY BROOK
By Jackie Smyth

Remington Twitchell has returned home looking quite brown after walking approximately 80 miles and climbing two mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Smyth Sr., of Stony Brook, had as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. James of New York City.

Hobart E. Molson of Tucson, Ariz., brother of Mrs. Herbert C. Smyth Jr., arrived Tuesday, July 19, to spend the rest of the summer in Stony Brook with the Smyths.

Miss Ruth Melville of Old Field, was appointed chairman of the junior entertainment committee of the Old Field Club. Members of the committee are Miss Penelope Seaver of Smithtown, Miss Jackie Smyth of Stony Brook, and Miss Audrey Thrasher of Old Field.

The Scotch dance scheduled to be held at the Old Field Club on Saturday, July 30, has been changed to an "ancestral" dance. However, a statement has been made that no tree will be provided for those who wish to trace too far back. The junior entertainment committee is putting on a floor show and we know the evening will be a grand success.

St. George Golf Club lost the first part of its match to Bellport in the annual Bellport-St. George match. However, we still have the return match to play.

The qualifying round for the McGilvery cup will be played on Thursday, July 21.

Wednesday night at the Old Field Club which is sponsored for the younger set was quite successful this past week. If everyone continues to cooperate we ought to have a lot of fun.

There will be great activity at the Old Field Club this Saturday. The gala events begin about two o'clock with a baseball game on the beach. The game will be followed by aquatic sports in the lagoon including canoe races. Next in the line of entertainment will be a fashion show at which any type of beach wear may be exhibited. There are ten prizes to cover all types of costumes. Supper will be in the form of a beach picnic and the evening will finish up with informal dancing at the club.

JEWELRY MYSTERIOUSLY RETURNED

The jewelry that was stolen from the home of Mrs. W. D. Van Arnarn on Sunday, July 10, has been mysteriously returned. The jewelry was found between the screen door and the wooden door of Mr. Beckwith's store last Saturday morning. The jewelry was in an envelope addressed to Mrs. Van Arnarn and had a note with it which said the money had been lost. The Brookhaven police are still working on the case.

The contest for the largest weak-fish has been raging on the quiet since it was first announced. The largest fish so far caught was taken by George Beatty and weighed two pounds and three quarters and was 21 inches long. The second fish was taken by Mrs. William Hagenah weighed two pounds and a quarter and was 19 inches long.

The contest will continue until Labor Day and any one bringing in a large fish should have it measured and weighed by either Mr. Woodfield, the steward at the club, or the lifeguard in the presence of one witness so that it may be properly entered in the contest.
