FIFTEEN CENTS

Two More Car Accidents to Shorehamites

Frei Hits Phone Pole On His Way to Train

MacKinnon's Car Runs Down Hill

Mighty man, Herbert Frei, had a chance to show his might when his car ran into a telephone pole on the road to Port Jefferson at about seven-thirty last Saturday night. Frei was on the way to meet a train when he hit the pole and ran his forehead into the windshield of the car.

It took more than a telephone pole to stop Herbert, however, and he went on to Port and met the train. So with blood streaming from the cut on his head he welcomed his friend, Dick Casey, who got off the train. Seeing Herbert's condition, Casey with the help of other Shorehamites who were at the station, took him to the hospital.

At the hospital it was necessary to put eight stitches in Herbert's forehead, and the doctors did all that was in their power to convince him that he should be quiet. They asked him foolish questions to see if he had a concussion, but from his indignant response the doctors were sure that there was nothing seriously wrong with him.

In order that Frei would not exert himself too much one of the nurses brought him a wheel chair to take him out to the car. Frei refused to use it and instead picked up the nurse and carried her out to the car.

Frei appeared at the dance at the club that night with a handkerchief tied around his head to cover the bandages and announced that he was a little late for the headdress party but was wearing his turban anyway.

Donald MacKinnon went visiting last Saturday night and left his car parked in front of the Spontowiz residence. The car started to roll down the hill, scraping along the curb and finally refused to go around a curve in the road and landed in a tree in the woods on the south side of the road.

As a result of the trip there was

Due to the number of cars which have run down hill without drivers recently in Shoreham, the Shoreham Police Department has issued the following orders.

All cars parked on the side of a hill must have one wheel against the curb, the brakes set, and the car in gear.

The Shoreham police have been instructed for the good of the public safety to strictly enforce these regulations.

Garbage Collector's First Day on Job Ends In Tree

Richard Polakiewicz is all through collecting garbage at least in Shoreham anyway. He claimed that last Monday was his first, last and only time on such a job. He was doing the garbage collecting in Joe Belpert's truck, a job that has been done in Shoreham for several years by Richard's brother. His brother, however, was unable to work Monday because he had been in an accident a couple of days before. So Monday found Richard out collecting garbage for the first time in his life and boy, what a day he had.

Up in the estates he had trouble trying to find the places where he had to stop. Somewhere up in the estates the coil on the truck burned out and he had a long walk to find Joe Belpert so that the truck could be fixed. With this the battery went dead and for the rest of the day it was necessary to crank the truck or leave it running. Later in the afternoon with his job almost done the truck ran out of gas.

There were two more stops to make when he stopped the truck on the top of the hill in front of Pallister's. Poor Richard had made his last trip with things from the Pallisters and was taking the empty cans back when he looked up and saw the truck on its way down the hill. The truck was going places after it but it had gained too much with nobody in it. Richard started speed and it was impossible for him to get to it before it took a nose dive into the corner of Mr. Lewis' hedge and came to rest with a crash as it hit a tree. By this time the truck had a full load which it spread liberally on Mr. Lewis' flower beds and lawn.

The truck hit the tree with its front right headlight and crumpled the front fender and bent the wheel. The radiator was pushed back into the engine making it a fine face lifting job for both the tree and the truck.

Richard sat down on the curb and surveyed the mess and then because Mr. Lewis didn't like the free fertilizer that had been put on his lawn Richard began to pick the junk up piece by piece and throw it back into the truck.

It required a tow truck to get the garbage truck out of where it was, and as it went off down the road behind the red tow truck it looked to Richard as if his troubles were over. But trouble from that truck for that day was not at an end. On the side road near Sherman's the back wheels of the truck locked and refused to move another inch. However, it required but a short time for a mechanic to crawl under the truck and free the wheels. This was the end of the last day of work for the old truck.

Two Plays Planned For Week-end, Aug. 20

Shoreham's dramatic season for 1938 will be practically concentrated in the events of one week-end. The most important event of this week-end will be the presentation of a two-act play by the Jitney Players of Shoreham. The play by Marcella Rose Kelly entitled "Cinnamon Cinders" takes place on board a ship during a fifteen-day pleasure cruise. Among the notables on this cruise will be Prince Ali Babendo, an Arabian prince, who has been visiting the United States. Sir Horatio Pillsbury, an English nobleman of high rank, the great Spinelli, the world's greatest baritone. Mrs. Susie Setterbalm, a New York socialite, Mrs. Fiddlefrit, the Fourth, will be along with her mischievous grandson, Felix, who takes delight in molesting Cinderella Cinders, daughter of Mrs. H. Q. Cinders, who are also aboard. Besides the afore mentioned there are three Hollywood stars, Sally Darbo, Winifred Wendemere and Ethel Eden. With this notable company on board the same ship, the trip proves to be most exciting.

The Jitney Players have already been rehearsing the twenty members of the cast under the able direction of Mrs. John L. Hogeboom for almost a week. From all present appearances the play is fast

Tennis Tournament Began At Shoreham Last Week

Last week-end Gilbert Frei arrived in Shoreham for the week-end announcing that Bob Oliver had asked him to arrange a tennis tournament, that he had arranged the tournament and that the first round must be played off that week-end. In spite of the short notice the tournament was accepted with great gusto and the first round was played off.

As far as the tournament has gone two men have already reached the semi-finals, but there will be a great deal of match play before the other two semi-finalists are ready to play.

C. V. Pallister has entered the semi-finals, defeating Haslett 6-4, 6-3 and having a hard fought battle with his brother, Dave, which he won 3-6, 6-0, 6-4. There was an upset in the match when Warden took Barnhart 6-4, 6-4. Warden then played Bovais and defeated him 6-2, 7-5, putting him also in the semi-finals. The winners between Warden and Pallister will play in the finals.

The other matches that were played were won by G. Frei over Fontaine, Davis over Hunsicker, MacKinnon over Hughes, Heiss over Bates, and F. Van Arnam over Kohlmann.

Mrs. Eldridge Dies Suddenly At Shoreham

Visitor Dies Here After Being Sick For Only One Day

The sudden death of Mrs. E. Hanford Eldridge came as a great shock to those who knew her here in Shoreham. Mrs. Eldridge, who was spending the summer at the home of Mrs. Gridley had been sick on Tuesday but reports were that she was getting better. Therefore her death at eight-thirty on Wednesday was very unexpected. Mrs. Eldridge's home was at 298 Argyle road, Brooklyn, but she has spent summers in Shoreham off and on for eighteen or twenty years.

Mrs. Eldridge's son, Wentworth, is spending the summer canoeing in Europe and so far it has been impossible to get in touch with him. However, it is hoped that he can be reached in Vienna on August 20.

Surviving Mrs. Eldridge besides Wentworth are her two brothers, Alexander Taylor of Rye, N. Y., and J. B. Taylor of Nutley, N. J. One of Mrs. Eldridge's closest friends

Masquerade Tomorrow At Shoreham Club

The annual masquerade dance at the Shoreham Country Club will be held tomorrow evening. All members and their guests are expected to attend this masquerade in costume and mask. There will be prizes for the most artistic, the most original, and the funniest costumes at the party. The judges for awarding these prizes will be selected at the club Saturday night.

The Shoreham Country Club on the evening of Aug. 20 will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the incorporation of Shoreham Village. On this night there will be a buffet supper limited to a hundred persons and catered by the Dove and Turtle Inn. It is expected on this evening that many old Shoreham residents who have since left the community, will return to Shoreham for a visit. The dance will follow immediately after the dinner. It is also hoped that arrangements can be made with the orchestra to play from 7:30 at which time the supper is scheduled to begin.

FLASH!

At the last minute it has been decided by those in charge of the production of the Jitney Players, that due to the special school meeting on that same night, the play, "Cinnamon Cinders" will be postponed for one week and will be presented on the night of Aug. 26.

OH! WHAT A LIFE!

Shoreham is a bad place for any editor to work, and the present editor is sure that after the events of the past week that any self-respecting editor would throw up his hands in despair, and then promptly pack up and leave. There might even be a few of his readers that wish he would do the same thing, but since the paper must go to press every Friday for ten weeks during the summer this would be quite out of the question. The reason for all this tearing of hair and gnashing of teeth is because the people around here who make the news have no originality, in other words they are a bunch of "copy cats."

Several weeks ago we ran headlines about two cars cracking up. It was good news then and might even have been called original. We said no one could do anything original around here and get away with it, and sure enough last week-end two more cars cracked up and the things are so much alike that with a few changes of names and places in the first story, it would fit right in the paper without anyone knowing the difference. We are not requesting that we have more accidents to cover but we are saying if a person must crack up his car couldn't he do it a different way? The similarity of these accidents has made the life of the editor very boring.

If only Herbert Frei had run into a tree instead of a telephone pole and the car that went down the hill gone in a ditch and turned over, things would have had a little variety to them. And in the case of the car going down the hill a trip into the ditch would have been a lot easier on the car in question.

The accident to the garbage truck was a little more original but even that car ran down hill. As far as the editor is concerned it would be much better if the cars stayed on top of the hills and didn't try to come down because every such trip just causes something for us to write that has already been written before.

But in a more serious vein, it has been a lucky thing that there has been no one hurt in any of these accidents with cars going down hill, and every one should be very careful about parking his car in accordance with the way that the Shoreham police have ordered.

If everyone would do this the cars would stay on the top of the hills and there would be no need to write these stories that look like carbon copies.

Also in connection with this, T. K. Elliott, who is the commissioner of police at Shoreham, has requested that the Shoreham Sounder give notice to Shoreham residents that he is deeply disturbed over the number of accidents and near accidents in the village and that in the future traffic laws will be strictly enforced.

Long Island Railroad Will Look Into Fixing Station

In response to the letter that appeared in last week's Shoreham Sounder and which was sent to the Long Island Railroad by the Shoreham Garden Club the following letter has been received:

Jamaica, N. Y.,
Aug. 10, 1938.

Shoreham Garden Club,
Shoreham, L. I.
Attn: Edith P. Gridley, Secretary.
Dear Madam:

Referring to your letter of August 4th relative to the disreputable condition of the Shoreham Railroad Station and grounds:

We are arranging to have the grass and weeds cut promptly, and are making an investigation to determine what action we will take towards repairing the station.

Very truly yours,
H. T. Frushour,
Superintendent.

Shoreham School District To Hold Special Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Shoreham school district No. 10 at the school house near the Shoreham station at 8:30 o'clock the evening of Friday, August 19. A notice has been sent to all persons in the district having a vote, urging them to be present. This district includes from the township line near Wading River on the east to the Shoreham line on the west and from the water on the north to just past the squab farm on the south.

The purpose of this meeting is to consider the proposition that was brought up at the annual meeting last May, which is "whether Shoreham school district No. 10 should be physically closed and to transport and pay tuition for pupils now taught here, to a larger district."

The procedure in this meeting will be merely to inform the trustees of the school whether or not such is the desire of the district, because it will be necessary to continue as before for another year.

There are many arguments on both sides which will be brought out at the meeting on Friday night.

THIEF TAKES BOTTLES FROM CLUB

It was noticed recently that a full case of empty Coca-Cola bottles had been taken from the Shoreham Country Club. The Shoreham police, upon investigation found that an attempt had been made to sell the empties in Rocky Point and they also know the identity of those persons who have taken these bottles. However, the police refuse to disclose the names which were connected with the theft. The police have also requested that the storekeepers in Rocky Point to whom the bottles were brought for the refund not accept the same.

OLD DOCUMENTS FOUND IN TRUNKS

In the top of the garage in back of the Dove and Turtle, two old trunks were recently found. These trunks had belonged to R. D. Warden's father, who was the first resident in Shoreham. In the trunks there were letters that dated back as far as 1870. There were also some that were slightly later that had been typewritten on some old machine that looked as if it had been done on a modern machine.

SHOREHAMITES

Announcements were received in Shoreham this last week of the marriage of Miss Lorraine Mountfortt Nye to Monsieur Jean Gaudefroy-Demombynes on Saturday the sixth of August at South Norwalk, Connecticut. Mrs. Gaudefroy-Demombynes is the daughter of Mrs. Mountfortt Nye and Mr. Frank W. Nye who were residents of Shoreham for many years.

Mrs. Charles Bartle and daughter, Patricia, of Hempstead, have been spending the week with Mrs. Bertha Frei.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brandon drove their daughter, Peggy, to Bristol, R. I., last Friday where she will spend the next two weeks.

Bob Brandon had as his guest last week-end George Snowden of Montclair, who graduated from N. Y. U. in June and is now associated with the Kraft-Phoenix Cheese Co. This week-end Mr. and Mrs. John Gulrk of South Orange, N. J., will be his guests.

Mrs. E. W. Oliver entertained at a buffet supper and bridge at her home on Thursday for Mrs. Norman Zeno, who is the guest of Mrs. C. V. Pallister. Mrs. Carl W. Scultze, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. Varian, is giving a luncheon today at the Dove and Turtle Inn for Mrs. Zeno.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert V. Davis and children, Teddy, Hubert Jr., and Dwight are visiting Mrs. Mildred Davis. The entire Hubert Davis family and eight boys from Cranbrook School took an eight weeks' trip to Nova Scotia in a 62-foot ketch, which was made in Estonia and is captained by the famous Otto Walter.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Finck and children, Mamre Ann, Joan and John, of Buffalo, N. Y., are to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Van Arnham and family this week-end. On Tuesday they go to the Dove and Turtle Inn for a week's stay.

MR. BRANDON MAKES TWO FISHING TRIPS THIS PAST WEEK

John Brandon while on his vacation this past week, has spent two days fishing in New Suffolk. On Tuesday he went fishing with Dewitt Bailey, Alfred Varian, Randall Warden and Cary D. Waters. The catch consisted of weakfish, porgies and kingfish. Among these men they formed a pool with prizes for the best fishermen. Money for the first caught was taken by Mr. Bailey. For the largest, the prize went for a weakfish caught by Mr. Varian. At 2:55 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Waters and Mr. Varian were tied for the most fish caught. At this time they set a time limit at 3 o'clock for this part of the contest. At 2:56 o'clock Mr. Varian caught a fish and the contest ended with Mr. Varian one fish ahead of Mr. Waters.

On Thursday Mr. Brandon took to New Suffolk as his fishing partners, four members of the Eagle Word has been received by Mrs. Edwin Belknap that their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Drayton Belknap, are leaving Reno, Nevada, Saturday to drive to Shoreham. They will spend some time at the Belknap's, later going to the home of Mrs. Drayton Belknap's mother and father, Dr. and Mrs. MacKinnon.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sackett left yesterday morning to spend a week in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. John Quincy Hunsicker III expect as their week-end guests, Miss Eugenia Finn, John Madigan, and Francis Hunsicker. Mr. Hunsicker will remain in Shoreham for the following week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sackett are entertaining Saturday night at a buffet supper for a few of their friends before the dance at the club. They will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hopkins, of Riverview, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Roy Caniff of Scarsdale, N. Y.

Miss Ann Whitlogh of Brooklyn, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Oliver.

On Sunday night Miss Nancy Thurber will have as her guests on the Thurber yacht at Center Moriches Toby Rudolph, Rene, Jeanne and Claire Laurencot, Pat and Buddy Sherman, Ed Barndart, Jim Hogeboom and Jim Brandon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Frasier of Garden City, and Mrs. Kenneth E. Knowles of Centerport, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cary D. Waters for the week-end. Mrs. Knowles will remain with Mrs. Waters for a couple of weeks.

Ralph Malm was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hughes last week-end.

Dick Spencer of Montclair, N. J., is the guest of Miss Lottie Zenke.

Miss Janet Waters will spend the week-end in Sea Girt, N. J., providing her poison ivy is better.

Club. Due to stormy weather the party did not leave the dock at New Suffolk until noon. All the Eagle Club members were made mates for the day's cruise and returned to Shoreham sporting their mates' caps with eagles on them. Prizes were given for the fishermen on this day also, Rene Laurencot caught the most fish with the total of twenty-four. Jimmy Brandon caught the first fish, and Buddy Sherman the largest fish which was a herring. Altogether there were about 65 fish caught which were later strung on a line so that the Eagle Club could have a picture taken with their catch.

TWO MORE CAR ACCIDENTS TO SHOREHAMITES

a badly blown tire, several broken springs, smashed headlights and fenders. The main difficulty is that it has been impossible to find repair parts for the car any place on the Island and as a result the MacKinnons must wait until parts can be sent from New York City before they can have their car back again.
