FIFTEEN CENTS

Tournament To See Finals This Week-end

Semi-finals Saturday Afternoon With Finals Sunday Afternoon at 4

The tennis tournament which was started several weeks ago will see its completion this week-end. All but one of the semi-finalists are known and it is expected that the last match before the semi-finals will be played some time Saturday morning. This will make it possible to have the semi-finals at 4:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and the finals, at 4:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The play in the lower brackets that was run off last week-end brought Donald MacKinnon into the semi-finals as he took Beatty 6-0 6-2 and then he performed a big upset when he took Gilbert Frei 6-1 4-6 7-5. Bill Davis worked into the quarter-finals when he defeated Frank Heiss 6-1 6-2. The meanest looking score of the week-end was in the match between Bill Hagenah and Frederic Van Arnem, the match was finally taken by Hagenah 8-6 2-6 6-4. Davis and Hagenah will play Saturday morning to see who will be the fourth semi-finalist.

This means that Saturday afternoon C. V. Pallister, Jr., will play R. D. Warden, Jr., and Donald MacKinnon will play the winner in the Davis-Hagenah play in the semi-finals. The winners of these matches will be in the finals on Sunday afternoon.

There is to be a cup given to the winner of the tournament which will be the permanent possession of the winner. It is hoped that next year it will be possible to have a challenge cup to be passed from winner to winner each year.

SPECIAL SCHOOL MEETING TONIGHT. PLAY POSTPONED

As it was announced at a last minute's notice in last week's Shoreham Sounder, the children's plays will not be presented until next Friday, Aug. 26. This change was made when it was found that there was to be a special meeting of the Shoreham School District this evening, when the play was originally scheduled.

The school meeting will be held at the schoolhouse at 8:30 o'clock this evening for the purpose of voting whether Shoreham School District No. 10 should be physically closed and to transport and pay tuition for pupils now taught here to a larger district. As it has already been pointed out this meeting will merely convey to the school trustees the wishes of the residents of the district on this subject, and that regardless of the vote results it will be impossible to close the school this year.

For further discussion on this school question, see page two.

Anniversary Celebration At Country Club Tomorrow

A Sunny Morning To Be Presented During Evening

Spanish Play Has Been Directed by Mrs. Elliott

A feature of the anniversary night entertainment will be the presentation of a one act play which has been directed by Mrs. T. K. Elliott. The play will go on promptly at 11:15 and due to the fact that people entering the club while the play is in progress disturb the cast as well as those in the audience no one will be allowed to enter the clubhouse during the progress of the play.

The play to be presented is a romantic story that took place in the city of Madrid, Spain, while Spain was still a peaceful country with fine old buildings and beautiful parks. "A Sunny Morning" takes place in a secluded corner of one of these old parks which has probably since been torn apart by the ravages of war.

Originally written by Serafin and Joaquin Alvarez Quintero, the play has been translated into English from the original Spanish by Luceia Xavier Floyd. Ten years ago, this short play was added to the Civic Repertory Theatre and on April 13, 1929, Eva Le Gallienne played the role of Donna Laura which will be played in Shoreham by Blossom Varian. In this same production in 1929 the part of Don Gonzalo which will be taken by Dewitt Bailey, was played by Eagen Brecher.

The story centers around the conversation which arises on a sunny morning upon the meeting in a park of two old people, Donna Laura and Don Gonzalo.

Those people in the cast of the production for tomorrow night other than Blossom Varian and Dewitt Bailey, are Ann Waters as Petra, and Bob Fontaine as Juanita.

KOHLMANN HAS ANOTHER CRACKUP

It seems that some people can't have any fun unless they are cracking up their cars. It was Jack Kohlmann this time on the way from Rocky Point last Saturday night after the dance at Shoreham. Bill Davis was with him when the accident happened.

According to Jack he was not going fast and had just shifted from second into third when the tire blew and the next instant he was mowing down concrete highway

ON TIME

Getting to dances at the club on time has for some time been a question that has been the target of the Sounder's editorials. It has become the thing to get to them on time lately so much that on the register last week appeared

Mr. and Mrs. George Beatty 10:10 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bates, 10:11 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Barnhart 10:12 p. m.

Buffet Supper Begins at 7:30 At Club House

The buffet supper which is being held at the club as part of the anniversary night celebration is being catered by the Dove and Turtle Inn, and from advance ticket sales will be well attended. The supper was originally limited to one hundred plates, but because of the great demand for more tickets that limit has been raised to one hundred and twenty-five. From reports received last night all the tickets will be gone long before 7:30 tomorrow night when the supper will begin.

This supper is going to be in itself a most excellent affair. There will be fine choices on the menu and those who want to have their choice should get there early before there is only a lamb bone left. Choices can be made from a long list that includes five different meats, five salads, and many other things which the Dove and Turtle's managers have put fancy names on so that one doesn't know what he is eating and for that reason cannot complain that it is not good.

ANNUAL MASQUERADE A GRAND PARTY

The annual masquerade of the Shoreham Country Club was held at the clubhouse last Saturday night. There were almost two hundred members and their guests attending the party and every one had a lot of fun either in their costumes or watching those who were in costume.

The high spot of the evening was the entrance of the hillbillies, two old mountaineers who seemed to step right out of the pages of "Esquire." These old boys with long hair and beards promptly laid down where they could hold up a post, get plenty of room to stretch their legs, and in a leisurely way

Silver Jubilee Of Incorporation Of the Village

Clubhouse to be Scene Of Gala Entertainment

A celebration of the 25th anniversary of the incorporation of the village of Shoreham will be held at the Shoreham Country Club tomorrow night, the 20th of August. A gala evening has been planned which should rival anything that has been seen in Shoreham for many years.

The idea for celebrating the silver jubilee of the incorporation had its origin with Mr. Alfred Varian, who took an active part in the actual incorporating of the village 25 years ago. Mr. Varian has been asked by J. W. Haslett the present president of the club, if he will tell of the incorporating of the village and something of its history before and after that date.

It is expected that on this occasion there will be some of the old Shoreham residents who have since left Shoreham among the guests who will be at the club that evening. Also for this evening any one who is not a member of the club and would like to attend this special anniversary celebration may do so by paying the regular guest charge for a Saturday night dance.

Festivities for the evening will begin at 7:30 o'clock with the buffet supper at the clubhouse. The supper will be followed directly by the regular Saturday night dance. At some time during the evening the orchestra will play a medley of the songs that were popular 25 years ago.

Featured on the evening's program will be a one-act play that has been specially prepared for the occasion.

VILLAGE TRUSTEES MET LAST WEEK

There was a meeting of the village trustees held last Saturday afternoon at the Village Building in Shoreham. Those present were the Mayor, three trustees, the treasurer, the village attorney and the village clerk.

The village budget was adopted with the same items and tax rate as last year. This seemed to be the only business except paying bills. A resolution was also adopted that the village clerk should collect taxes in two installments.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL MEETING

The special meeting of the Shoreham School District which is to be held tonight should be a most interesting affair. And there should be a great many people there who will take an active interest on one side or the other of the question. In fact it might be worth while if as many people in Shoreham as possible planned to attend. It is seldom that there is a question of this nature in Shoreham, but when there is, people take an active interest in what goes on, and there is much heated argument on both sides of the question. The editor has heard tales of some of the fights that have been fought over political questions in the past, and it seems that this school meeting should be as interesting as those past fights.

After talking with people who are on both sides of the fence the editor will try (taking his life in his hands) to explain what this is all about and try to give the pros and cons of the question. Not trying to step on anyone's toes or influence anyone's opinions in this matter.

The purpose of the meeting is to determine whether or not it is advisable to close the Shoreham school and send the children who now attend to a nearby school district. It seems that there are only six children in the school at the present time. Therefore it seems foolish to some to continue the school under the circumstances. While on the other hand, what if in a few years there should be more children in this district, the school would have to be opened again. Those who uphold the closing of the school claim that there will be a saving in taxes; those who are against closing claim that there will be little or no saving—especially if it is reopened within the next few years.

Those who oppose closing the school also argue that if the school is closed the investment that is there will deteriorate and if the school has to be opened in the future the money saved will have to go to getting the school in condition to reopen. However, if the other side can show that there is no possibility of reopening for the next five years it seems that this factor might be neglected.

The question of tax savings will need figures to show just what the tax savings will be in order that either side can have something solid to stand on along this line of thought.

One side says that the almost private tutoring that the children get at the Shoreham school is good for them, while the second side says that they need more competition. And so it goes with one side contradicting the other. The question of where to send the children after the school is closed is going to be the issue that will more than anything else decide which way the argument will turn. It will be up to those who want to close the school to give a satisfactory answer to this if the vote is going to swing to the side that closes the school.

It remains up to everyone in the district who is eligible to vote on this question to go to the meeting tonight and have all concerned represented. If anyone is interested in this question and is not sure whether or not he is able to vote that person should go to the meeting anyway and find out there if he can vote.

The vote is open to all taxpayers in the village and in the estates, in fact, anyone who pays rent or taxes in the school district is able to vote.

THIRD CAMPER HEARD FROM

Twenty years ago three boys from Shoreham spent a week camping on the beach beyond Black Rock. These boys were John Bates, Alfred Varian and Francis Pruyn. To realize how young they were and how long ago this was Mrs. Varian and Mrs. Bates remember that they took a quart of milk to the boys every day during their week's camping trip.

Since that time Alfred Varian and John Bates have been in Shoreham summers and have kept in contact with each other but neither of them have been in touch with the third boy, Francis Pruyn.

However, last Thursday John Bates and his wife were picking beach plums about the same place that these three boys had been camping twenty years ago. John kicked an old bottle in which he found a note that had been written on the back of a business card which read:

"To whom this message reaches - Greetings, and will you kindly communicate where it was picked up.

get a look at what was going on around them. They pulled their squirrel guns up besides them and pulled out large jugs of corn 'licker' and just stayed there.

When it came to the judging of the costumes the judges had a difficult job trying to pick the most artistic, the most original and the funniest costumes. The judges were Mrs. Carl Schultze, Mr. Charles Hopkins and a guest of Mrs. Callender.

It was agreed that the hillbillies should be in a class by themselves but the judges pulled them out of line to compete with some others for the most original costume. The other most original was Miss Joan Fontaine, dressed as a Chinese coolie. The ones that were picked for the most artistic costume were Miss Eugenie Finn and Miss Marge Wunchell dressed as a Spanish lady and a magazine girl, respectively.

The contestants for the funniest costume were Mr. William Haganah as a baby and Mr. Frederick Zenke as a farmer.

From those chosen by the judges the applause of the audience chose the final winners. Those chosen were Miss Finn, the hillbillies, who were Bob Fontaine and his guest, and Mr. Zenke.

Other costumes were Bob Oliver as a judge in the absence of club president Haslett took charge as master of ceremonies. Three who marched together were Marion Zenke who was dressed as some one who had been in bed and had gotten up for the occasion and still had an ice bag on her head and a "quarantined" sign on her back, her companions were a nurse and a doctor. Jack Kohlmann arrived as an Arabian with an authentic costume that he had gotten on a trip abroad. There were two who came as ghosts, several girls dressed in children's clothes, and some more who were gypsies. The only impersonation of another person was done by Dr. Max Finn who entered as Hitler giving the Hitler salute.

Davis and Kohlmann figured that between them they had had four crackups since the first of May, which is some record.
