VOL. 1. No. 4.

SHOREHAM, NEW YORK, FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1930

FIFTEEN CENTS

Town Residents Warned of Youngsters' Actions

Do not be alarmed, if, at any moment, any or all of the younger residents of Shoreham should start mumbling unintelligible phrases. They have not suddenly gone insane, nor are they casting maledictions upon the town. They merely are attempting to memorize parts for certain sketches or plays.

Or, if these same persons, when at home, should of a sudden fling their arms about the room, knocking over the most expensive of family vases and heirlooms, they are not under the curse of drink, but are only following in the footsteps of the mightiest of orators, with appropriate gestures to fit their parts in the plays.

PROPERTY BOUGHT BY LAND COMPANY

Suffolk County Land Company Buys Seven Hundred Acres Near Station

Purchase of seven hundred acres by the Suffolk County Land Company has been announced by Donald Upham, Secretary-Treasurer of the company. The plot lies to the northeast of Shoreham Station, on the north side of the far road between Shoreham and Wading River. The property was formerly the Barnes state.

The acreage is between a present holding of the Land Company near Shoreham Estates and the Arthur A. Hill farm, which has recently been purchased by the Catholic Orphan Asylum Society of the Brooklyn Diocese. Reasons given for the purchase concerned continuance of the restriction policy of the Land Company in and about the Village of Shoreham.

The newly acquired property is uncleared land with an abundance of locust and scrub oak throughout. As yet no indications point to its clearing.

WILL OIL ESTATES ROADS

Oiling of the tar roads in Shoreham Estates is to be begun early next week, a statement issued by Donald Upham, Secretary-Treasurer of the Suffolk County Land Company, announced. Work of oiling will not be completed before ten days to two weeks, it was stated.

CLUB PLAYS CARDS AT PARTY TONIGHT

Second Annual Gathering of Bridge Players to Take Place at 8:30 p. m.

Contract and Auction Bridge, Poker and Five Hundred will be played this evening at the second annual Bridge Party of the Shoreham Club. Cards will start to be played at 8:30, according to an announcement made by Mrs. E. W. Oliver, chairman of the party.

Tickets have been sold since Wednesday, prices being four dollars per table for Bridge, $1.50 a person for Poker and a dollar a head at the Five Hundred table. Bridge tables are to be non-progressive, the announcement stated.

Prizes Are Donated

Prizes for each table have been donated by various Club members as follows:

Mrs. L. A. Eddy, Mrs. C. D. Waters, Mrs. F. W. Nye, Mrs. M. Lewis, Mrs. J. A. Acosta, Mrs. C. V. Pallister, Mrs. J. W. Finn, Mrs. E. F. Stevens, Mrs. Edwin Belknap, Mrs. B. Frei, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. F. O. Zenke, Mr. E. W. Oliver, Mr. C. D. Waters, Mr. W. J. Sherman, Mr. David Baker, Mr. A. W. Varian.

Also homemade candy is being donated by Mrs. Kohlman, Mrs. E. W. Oliver, Mrs. Alfred Varian, Jr., Miss Natalie Finn, Mrs. H. G. Smith, Mrs. F. W. Nye and others.

Up to noon today the following residents had bought tickets for tonight's affair.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Acosta, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Varian, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Varian, Jr., Mrs. C. F. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Pallister, Mr. and

Construct Obstacle Golf Course On Greenbrier Hotel Property

An original obstacle golf course is in the process of construction on the grounds of Greenbrier Inn, west of the tennis courts on the corner of the main road to the beach. D. T. Hinckley, proprietor of the hotel is building the course which is expected to take up a quarter of an acre of ground.

Plans are completed and work will be started next week on the plot which of necessity will be ploughed and seeded to form the all-grass course. Nine holes will be finished by the end of August, but before the entire course has followed the idea of the plans there will be

AMATEURS PRESENT SIX ACTS AT CLUB

Two Soloists, Saxophone Trio, Dancers and Male Quartet Entertain Members

Six acts were presented by local talent at the special program arranged by the Entertainment Committee at the Club last Saturday evening. Bruce Mapes and his Tennesseans furnished dance music before and after the production. Mr. F. W. Nye was master of ceremonies.

Four Yachtsmen, Wesley Oliver, Robert Oliver, C. V. Pallister, Jr., and Larry Ferris, headed the list of sketches. With accompaniment by Wesley Oliver they hummed and sang "Bye, Bye, Blues" and "Dinah". Mrs. M. F. Sloan, nee Jessica Hagenah, late of Broadway musical comedies, "Present Arms", "Animal Crackers" and "The Circus Princess", rendered three popular numbers, "Why Was I Born?", "There's Danger in Your Eyes", "You Do Something to Me".

Cross and Varian Tango

Third on the program was a Tango offered by Miss Mary Cross and Jack Varian. Miss Cross was attired in a gown of egg-shell satin, with red slippers. Mrs. Sloan was recalled for another group of songs. "Iris" and "Nobody's Using It Now" completed her second rendition. A saxophone trio, Larry Ferris, Robert Oliver, Wesley Oliver, all of whom had been included in the yachting quartet, played two popular numbers, "Bye, Bye, Blues" and "Sing, Ye Sinners".

Terminating the evening's entertainment, Mrs. Mervin Pallister, nee Kathryn Kohlman, offered four vo-

Commence Painting Church At Shoreham Railroad Sta.

Painting of the Catholic Church near Shoreham Station commenced Wednesday, it was announced. Charles Dahl of Shoreham, painter and decorator, has the contract for the work.

Plans concerning the job indicate that the outside of the entire building is to receive two or more coats of white paint within the coming week. According to Dahl, completion of painting will be either Wednesday or Thursday.

The next step of Church authorities will be to elaborate upon the entrance to the building, it was stated.

HEAT STRIKES MAN SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Wauwepex Scouts Present Weekly Dance At Wading River Camp

F. E. Nesmith, owner of the Wading River Pavilion was stricken by the intense heat Sunday at 3 p. m. He was taken home and given immediate medical attention. By Monday he had recovered sufficiently to drive to New York City for consultation with a specialist.

Previous to this week he had received treatment for similar attacks, it was reported.

Wauwepex Has Play

The dramatic association of Camp Wauwepex in Wading River, near Deep Pond presented its weekly play and dance Thursday night in the Grand Lodge on the camp grounds. The show was under the direction of Thomas Keating, of Columbia University, consisting of a one-act mystery play.

As is the custom of the camp a girl from Wading River was chosen hostess of the evening. Yesterday Miss Evelyn Rowley was so honored.

Wauwepex is a Boy Scout camp the Nassau County Council, and been in operation for a number of years. Plays and dances of this nature have been presented only during the past two years, it was stated.

RIDE TO RIVERHEAD MOVIE

A group of eighteen of the colored help of the Village took a bus trip to Riverhead Wednesday evening to go to the Riverhead Theatre. The party was arranged by Miss M. M. Smith, property owner in Shoreham.

WETS VS. DRYs

Objection has been voiced regarding the use of the upper porch of the Clubhouse by people in wet bathing suits. Not only are the seats of the chairs and benches dampened and partially covered by sand, but the dance floor also is scratched by the sand from wet feet.

At the beginning of the season, before the Club was opened officially, new cushions were placed on the wicker chairs and the dance floor scraped, varnished and waxed. In spite of this, the objection did not concern the deterioration of Club equipment; merely the inconvenience for non-bathers was mentioned.

Very often residents of the Village, their guests and friends congregate on the upper porch to enjoy the beach and the water without actually being on the sand. If, at these times, bathers with wet suits are on the veranda, saturating the seats with salt water, it greatly inconveniences people who are clothed, to say nothing of the poor appearance given the building by drying footprints on the floor.

The lower porch of the Club was constructed intendedly for bathers who had just come up from the beach, desirous of sitting in the shade or of playing cards at the numerous tables furnished beneath the dance floor. One tier of the building is for the drys; the other is for the wets. Neither should encroach upon the territory of the other.

THE FIRST OF AUGUST

Today marks the entry of the second half of the summer, while the first half has passed incredibly fast into obli-vion by Time's blade. Certain seasons of some years seem, to us, to be over nearly as soon as they have commenced. Why that?

An explanation generally accepted goes into consideration the fact of happiness in what he is doing and in what he has been doing for a long time, the days and months seem, to him, to travel into the past with remarkable celerity.

On the other hand, if nothing interesting or delightful has been oc-curing during a particular period, time passes painfully slowly. Longevity of life appears to be desirable in most cases. But the fallacious conclusion should not be drawn that if one desires his life to seem the most extensive, he must not make time go quickly by doing what, to him, is interesting.

Life is only valuable because it is short. It would not be desirable, if it lasted forever. Therefore, the more worthwhile and interesting things one accomplishes, the faster time passes; the faster time passes, the more valuable life becomes.

SHOREHAM'S CHURCH

The painting of the little white church near Shoreham Station is one of the commendable things that have been done this summer. It has been in contemplation for some time. However it was only last Wednesday that work actually started.

The church, being outside of the Incorporated Village of Shoreham, is not under the jurisdiction and management of the Board of Trustees and other officials of the village.

We are not, at the present, informed of the sources which made possible the coating of the exterior, but, it was mentioned, certain people, and there are many of them, have put the church coffers in a position where it was no longer an impossibility to order the much-needed job. This act speaks well for a small community in which there are several religious sects, with other churches nearby.

Still, it has taken a long time to procure the painting of the church, and it will be a yet longer while before anything further is done to beautify this house of worship,—unless the residents of Shoreham realize its position as a public work, and act accordingly.

DOGS DEFIANT

Even if dogs have little sense, they can at least read. So it would appear from their actions last Friday night. Upon the very eve of the publication of Stroller, in which paper was printed an announcement of the Board of Trustees having to do with the elimination of barking dogs, defiance was broadcast by the Rover kingdom.

Near midnight, as if by a prearranged sign, the chorus of arrogance began. It seemed as though every Shoreham canine entered into the spirit of the thing and howled his objection to the notice of the Trustees.

Masters and mistresses awoke from troubled dreams to the clamor of the barking. It took a full hour for the dogged clamor to be abated, with much entreating and threatening on the part of various households. But at last quiet was procured once more and Shoreham again settled down in bed, while the shaggy pets smiled sleepily beneath.

Dogs defiant had settled the score of too much publicity.

Low Tidings

At the dance last Saturday night, two wheels were stolen off an automobile which was parked. We wonder if there were people in the car at the time, and why they did not object to the theft.

Headline in New York paper: "Take Train to Movies Two Miles Away."

We wonder if the engine enjoyed hearing and seeing Rudy (Hubert) Vallee croon the Stein Song.

Frei's Construction Co.
Excellent Cement Working

Frei's Construction Company hereby desires to inform the public that the first job it has taken over for a cement gutter, or something like that, is nearly completed, and we will be in a position to receive new orders on or about January 1st, 1940.

Mr. Boehm informs us that his dog Si, loved by all Shoreham residents, is in especially good health this season.

Sill's rock looks puny and weak at high tide so far from shore but you ought to see its muscles at Low Tide.

Beware—4Y Is in Town

After spending two years in Chicago with the racketeers he has come to Shoreham for a needed rest but claims that this town has more life than Chicago. We all remember that famous feat he performed two years ago when he swam from the Cape of Good Horn to North Shore Beach but, unable to penetrate the crowded waters, was forced to turn back when victory was in his grasp.

B— and J— went out to dinner. Arrived at Vinny's Den at night. Everybody was so gay, It had to end in this sad way. Id" @

We understand that the waiters at the Bison Restaurant go out for lunch.

Said the Board of Trustees:

"Little Boy Blue,
Come blow your horn
When nearing the crossroads
And the brakelining's worn".
But little Boy Blue
Didn't let out a peep
And now he lies
In his grave, fast asleep.

Next week we shall have a story on the origin of sunburn,—maybe.
