SHOREHAM - WADING RIVER TOURNAMENT TENNIS

Nineteen Ninety Four being the 70th anniversary of the start of the Shoreham Wading River Tennis matches, this account is published to help celebrate the occasion.

A friendly rivalry in sports has existed for many years between the neighboring villages of Shoreham and Wading River. The earliest recollections of this writer center on the Annual Fourth-of-July baseball games between the two communities. Following the mile long parade from the Shoreham Store (Woodville Road corner of Overhill Road) to the Ball Field (Woodville Road corner of North Country Road), the game would begin. Of course Mary Sini's field had been freshly cut to permit playing thereon.

The photo, circa 1914, shows the gathering in the field after the parade. Prominent figures are Dr. Campbell with his bagpipes and kilts and Mr. Erskine with megaphone. On at least one occasion during World War One the Fourth-of-July Parade was led by the Army Field Band from Camp Upton, currently the site of Brookhaven National Laboratories. These ball games continued into the thirties.

Tennis was a popular game in the early days of the Village. There were a number of courts in Shoreham; at the homes of Mattie Smith/Colonel Snyder, Harry Boehm, Frank Gridley, the Griffiths, Mrs. Finn, the Country Club (Its courts were in the grassy parking field immediately north of the Vermeylen property), and on the bluffs at Flavell's Shoreham Inn. Mattie Smith's house is the one on Beatty Road, now owned by Richard Rohman. The overgrown site of the old tennis court is plainly visible north of the road between Fitzgerald Road and Prospect Street. At Harry Boehm's house, later Harry Hughes' and currently Bob Reid's Sr., the court (perhaps there were two) lay west of the house, the house fronting on Tower Hill Road. Frank Gridley owned the property on Gridley Road between Tagliabue Road, and Wardenclyff Road. The tennis court sided on Gridley Road, east of the house which is now owned by the Van Soestbergens. The Griffith house, later owned by Natalie and Jack Hunsicker, is situated just west of the present Linda and Ed Weiss home and its tennis court lay south of the house. After fire destroyed the Hanan home on the bluff to her east, Mrs. Florence Finn bought the Hanan property and built a tennis court there. It was erased when the present Pisacano house was built. There may well have been a court on the Kendrick property (now Butler) on Overhill Road west side, south of Beatty Road. The Inn courts lay north of the Inn itself between it and the bathing pavillion on the bluffs. Zeno's new house, "Ledgmere," on Briarcliff Road also sported a tennis court. Years later, when Donald Upham built his lavish home between Tower Hill Road and Briarcliff Road, a court was constructed there. It was later known as The French School Court by Tom Adams and John Bates in their early tennis years. I believe it was in the thirties that the land on Woodville Road at the corner of Briarcliff Road, on which the matches are played today, was deeded to the Village of Shoreham by a number of gentlemen who were Village homeowners and members of the Country Club.

*The old Shoreham Country Club courts, circa 1933

In Wading River, there were courts at the long - gone Greenbrier Inn, and others, such as those at Charlie Wood's and Jesse Heatley's houses. According to Ed Wattedamps, Charlie Wood's court on Wading River Manor Road and Parker Road was the official Club court in Wading River. It was the first court in the area to have a Hartrue surface. Jesse Heatley's court was on Sound Avenue, the fourth house on the left north of the Post Office / General Store complex.

The first Annual Tennis Match of record between the Villages was played on Labor Day weekend 1924. The Shoreham team was sponsored by the Shoreham Country Club and the Wading River team was under the aegis of the Wading River Polo and Croquet Club until 1930 and Wading River Field and Tennis Club ever since. These matches have continued uninterrupted through the years and, consequently, appear to be the oldest continuous series of matches in these United States.

Although the Davis Cup matches predate our Shoreham / Wading River series, that competition was suspended during World War II for the duration, whereas our matches continued uninterrupted, according to Gilbert Frei and others who played. The gap in the records from 1938 to 1964 was caused by the fact that a trophy (or trophies) on which were engraved the only records, was stolen at some point from the home of Jesse Heatley of Wading River. Results for the 1958 tournament were found in a Shoreham Item of that year.

Shoreham 4		Wading River 1
J Bates	defeated	Don Wilson	6 - 0, 6 - 0
J. Brandon	lost to	Chas. Ficken	6 - 2, 3 - 6, 6 - 4
H. Taström	defeated	Bo Hager	6 - 4, 6 - 4
J. Bates, H. Frei	defeated	Don Wilson, H. Gosman	6 - 3, 6 - 4
Bill Sedgewick, Jim Mc Crystal	defeated	Don Sayre, Creig Heatley	6 - 0, 6 - 1

After four new first class tennis courts were built at the southeast corner of Woodville and Briarcliff Roads, the old courts between the Club House and the Aldrich house (now Vermynen) were removed to provide additional parking space near the Club. All ensuing matches have been played on the new site.

The Wading River Club /Shoreham Country Club Annual Inter Club Tennis Tournament Trophy lists the winners from 1924 to 1938. As mentioned above there is a gap in the records from then until 1964, where the Victor Heatley Tennis Trophy picks up and lists the matches through 1978. Victor Heatley was the enthusiastic Wading River team organizer for many years and the Trophy was given in his memory. 1979 through 1993 appear on the later Heatley Trophy in memory of Seldon W. Heatley.

Jack Hagenah, Herb Frei, Bunny Beatty, Gilly Frei, circa 1932

Gilbert Frei was the spirited coach / captain of the Shoreham team for many years until his death in 1992. His older brother Herb Frei played on the team in the early years. It is interesting to note that Gilly's son, Skelly, and Skelly's son Geordi, have followed in his "footfaults" and played on the Shoreham team as well.

By the same token, there have also been three generations of Bates and Vermynens on the Shoreham team through the years.

And there were several father - son combinations, including Jack R. Brandon and Jim Brandon, Warren and Mike Heeg, Jim and Derek Jehlé, and Joe and Michael Abata.

The Wading River Team has been similarly blessed with family combinations. Jesse and Craig Heatley competed at various times. The Hager family spans three generations with Reid Hager, Bo, Charlie and Cris. There were also K.W. Gosman and Halsey Gosman, N. Wood and C. A. Wood, Ed and John Wattecamps, Al and David Prodell and finally the Lee family.

Women's Exhibition Matches were played in connection with the Annual Tournament in 1974, 1977, and 1978.

In 1979 the Frei Trophy was officially donated for Women's Shoreham - Wading River Tennis in honor of Gilbert Frei and it has met with enthusiastic competition since its inception.

This story would not be complete without mention of the friendly enthusiasm of both sides. It has been traditional to hold a celebration party following each match. One year the party is hosted by Wading Rivber and the next year by Shoreham, very often on the grounds of the respective Clubs. Back in the 30's and 40's, the teams were toasted by passing around a loving cup of cold mint juleps. Currently these rites seem to have given way to the more ordinary form of cocktail party. Wouldn't it be fun to revert back to the more formal (or was it more informal) ritual? Can someone find another Sister Hapgood to breed the juleps?

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE MEN'S TOURNAMENT COMPETITION (Since 1964)

The year 1924 was the opening year of Shoreham-Wading River tennis competition. A veteran Wading River team secured the initial victory as they fielded R. W. Howell, K.W. Gosman, H. L. Cook, Jesse Heatley and C. M. DeWitt. Shoreham charged back securing victories over the next 3 years with teams consisting of the following: in 1925 Jack Brandon, Dudley Yard, Harold Rudolph, young Gilly Frei and Bill Hagenah; in 1926 Herb Frei, Stew Dickinson and Tony Vermynen joining Gil Frei and Hagenah to make up the team; in 1927 newcomers Edger Nye and Jim Cross Jr. along with the two Freis and Vermynen comprised the team. The early lead in competition was short lived for the Shoreham boys as Wading River dominated the remaining years up to 1938, closing out the initial 15 years with a margin of 9 victories to 6 for Shoreham.

We now enter the "dark ages" of Cup competition. The records for the next 25 years are, at best, misplaced. The hunt is on for possible sources of information. But for now, we may only assume that Shoreham dominated the next 25 years with grace and modesty. That brings us to the modern era of our community tournament.

The most obvious feature of Wading River teams from 1964 to 1970 was the presence of the Preeg boys. John and Bill were a dominating force causing many Shorehamites to head to the cocktail party early. During the 7 years of their play, Wading River won 4 straight times and then lost in 1968 by a 3-2 score. They vindicated that loss by winning the next two years by 5-0 and 4-1.

Shoreham Team 1972

The 1970 match produced a fine effort by John Bellport who fell to Bob Bailey in 3 sets, 3-6, 6-1, 7-5. John Bates and Tom Adams were blasted in singles by John Preeg and Bo Hager by identical scores of 6-2, 6-1. The nervous debut of Ed Weiss and Ed Barnhart was also unsuccessful. Only Rookie Joe Abata and Jim Jehle managed to win. As they bested Charley Hager and Ed Wattecamps.

At this point the Shoreham stalwarts were a very depressed lot. Nevertheless, despite the gloom that had spread throughout the Village, 1971 dawned as a bright new era. The Preeg boys were gone!

Wading River loaded up its team with other family combos, 2 Hagers and 2 Wattecamps. But in addition to losing the Preegs, they had retired some of their dreaded veterans. Dave Wilson played his last match in 1965, Al Prodell in '66, Halsey Gosman in '68, C. H. Wood in '69 and Charlie Ficken in '70. Our eastern neighbors were in for their own dark age.

Through the 7 year Preeg era, Shoreham had been rebuilding its team. Our retired Captain, Gilly Frei was the heart of the team and our chief cheerleader. Herb Tastrom, Paul Vermeylen and Jim McCrystal retired from competition in 1967, except for a brief comeback by Jim. As they moved aside, they opened spaces for players who would become steady and consistent competitors for years to come.

John Bates had begun his competition in 1958 and has since logged a total of 29 matches. In 1965 Tom Adams began what will this year be 30 consecutive years of cup play. Jim Jehle joined in 1968 playing in 22 matches. Joe Abata played 15 straight years starting in 1970 until illness took its toll. Also in 1970 Ed Weiss began his streak of consecutive matches which will reach 25 this year. During this period Shoreham was also aided by the 7 year contribution of John Bellport and 8 years of play by Ed Brickley.

The match results over the next few years reflect these changes. Shoreham won 4-1 in 1971 and was briefly set back 3-2 in 1972 as Wading River added the power of Roy Brazelton. But the Shoreham team would not be denied. They ran off 6 straight victories from 1973 to 1978.

Ed Weiss recalls that in 1974 he was locked in combat with Roy Brazelton and was on the wrong end of a 6-0, 3-0 score. As they changed courts he dejectedly tossed his racquet aside, berating himself as a poor excuse for a tennis player. Dr. Bill Garvin overheard him and supplied the necessary confidence boost. "Stop that talk Ed, you can beat him!". An inspired Ed Weiss returned to the court and won a brilliant come-from-behind victory.

The 1978 matches were as tight as they had been for many years.

While Shoreham won 4-1, the individual matches were hard fought brawls. At singles Bo Hager beat John Bates 5-7, 6-2, 6-1, Tom Adams beat Roy Brazelton 3-6, 6-3, 6-1, Ed Brickley beat Pat Guarino 6-3, 2-6, 6-3 and Joe Abata and Jim Jehle beat Bryan Smith and Steve Shapiro to close out the match 6-0, 2-6, 6-2.

In 1979 Wading River shifted Brazelton to doubles and the adjustment gave them a 3-2 victory as he teamed with John Wattecamps to defeat Joe Abata and Jim Jehle. John Bates won at singles for Shoreham along with a victory by Ken Foley and Ed Weiss at #2 doubles.

The 1980 matches returned to form with a 3-2 Shoreham victory with straight set wins at #2 singles (Brickley), #3 singles (J. Larson, our new secret weapon) and #1 doubles (Bates and Weiss). That year your author learned a sad lesson about the Wading River competitive spirit.

In my first year of play (1965) I had teamed at #2 doubles with Roy Schweyer against Halsey Gosman and Harry Wood. Wading River had already secured the cup with 4 team victories. Our match was really quite meaningless. The tiebreaker had not yet been invented and, as luck would have it, our third set dragged on and on into the gathering darkness as the spectators (in an embarrassed trickle at first, but later a flood) headed for the cocktail party. It ended at 12-10 in the 3rd.

In 1980 I was matched against Bo Hager at #1 singles and my prior experience with a "meaningless" match was clearly on my mind. Shoreham had won its third and decisive team match as Bo struggled through the second set. Of course our match was now "meaningless", or so I thought. I had won the first set and was ahead 4-1 in the second. Bo glared across the net at me with renewed intensity as I suggested that we adjourn to the cocktail party. At each court changeover I renewed my suggestion. "Bo, this is silly! Let's get some beers," I would whisper to him encouragingly. He drew even, won the second set and then locked horns for the final set. At this point we were both dashing and crashing around like two 35 year olds. No one left for the cocktail party until Bo raised his arms in victory. A white haired Wading River lady later told me it was the best match she had ever seen. It's all a matter of perspective.

In 1981 and 1982 the Shoreham team continued its winning form. The 1981 match was tied at 2-2. As reported by the Shoreham Item, "the outcome of the match now depended on the #1 doubles team of Joe Abata and Jim Jehle. Despite a ripple of uncertainty and even a few moans of dismay from the crowd, Joe and Jim....decisively dispatched their opponents, Roy Brazelton and John Meeker, 6-3, 6-1, thus insuring a prompt and victorious trip to the cocktail party."

The 1982 victory was a 5-0 shutout with rookie Geysa Kaali winning at doubles with Jehle.

W. Preeg, Bo Hager, Tom Adams 1983

Herb Tastrom 1984

Derek Jehle and Gilbert Frei 1981

Wading River had quietly been adding new faces over the years. Their mainstay continued to be Bo Hager who missed only three matches between 1967 and 1993. Roy Brazelton played 18 consecutive matches starting in 1972. Bryan Smith played 11 straight starting in 1973 and Steve Shapiro has missed only 1 year since 1975. John Meeker has played in 12 matches starting in 1977 and Art Jarit logged 12 matches since 1981. Pat Guarino played 8 times starting in 1976. John Wattecamps competed 10 straight years to 1981 and Ed Wattecamps stretched out 8 matches from 1967 to 1986.

These new faces supported Wading River in 1983 when Billy Preeg returned and the cup moved east again for two years (both 3-2 victories).

The key match in 1983 was a blistering 3 set victory by Steve Shapiro over Ed Brickley at #3 singles. The match was played on the hard court and lasted over 2 hours. It was the first cup championship determined by a tiebreaker as Steve outlasted Ed 4-6, 6-3, 7-6.

In 1984 Wading River edged out a victory by close three set wins at #2 singles (Shapiro again over Brickley 6-2, 4-6, 6-2) and #3 singles (Prodell over Larson 1-6, 7-6, 6-3) and a rout at #2D with Jarit/Meeker over Abata/Jehle, 6-2, 6-1.

The close of the 1984 competition brought on another long drought for Wading River as the Shoreham team dominated the next 8 matches.

Shoreham continued to advance new players onto the team during these years, adding 11 new faces. The Kaali brothers (1982 and 1983), Mike Abata (1985), John Bates, Jr. (1985), Tim Bauer (1986), Dave Bauer (1990), Leo Sternlicht (1990), Pete Read (1990), Geordie Frei (1992) and Ev Melius (1993).

During this period Wading River added Eric Hager (1982), B. Stuke (1982), Dave Prodell (1984), Joe Benanti (1987), Chris Hooven (1988), John Hager (1991), R & E Lee (1991) and Rus Meier (1992).

But the depth of the Shoreham team was too great and each year another victory was notched.

In 1985 Shoreham won 5-0 with rookie victories by Mike Abata and John Bates, Jr. The Abata match was a brilliant display of tennis on the hard surface as he edged past Dave Prodell 3-6, 6-1, 6-3.

In 1986 Jim Jehle and Ed Weiss held on to defeat Bo Hager and John Wattecamps at #1 doubles to secure a 3-2 team victory.

In 1987 the margin was 4-1 with Tim Bauer edging Joe Benanti in a nip and tuck battle 7-6, 7-6 with Bates/Weiss slipping by Brazelton/Shapiro 7-6, 7-5.

In 1988 and 1989 the margin dropped to 3-2 as Shoreham swept the singles each year with back to back victories by John Larson (#1), Tom Adams (#2) and Mike Abata (#3). Wading River dominated the doubles matches with teams of Shapiro/Jarit, Shapiro/Hager and Meeker/Brazelton.

Shoreham Team 1987

Wading River Team 1987

Wading River Team 1992

In 1990 Shoreham again won 3-2 with a singles sweep, substituting rookie Leo Sternlicht for Mike Abata. Hager/Shapiro beat Read/Bates, Sr. in a tight match 7-6, 3-6, 7-6 and Meeker/Brazelton took a default as Ed Weiss pulled up lame.

In 1991 Shoreham again won the singles but added #1 doubles with a tense victory by Bates/Weiss over Bo Hager/E. Hager, 6-2, 7-6 (7-6).

In 1992 Shoreham swept the series 5-0. However, as will be mentioned later, many of those matches were extremely close.

During the 8 year stretch of Shoreham victories from 1985 to 1992, John Larson won every match defeating in order Eric Hager, Steve Shapiro, Pat Guarino, Joe Benanti (3 times), Art Jarit and Rus Meier. John Bates, Sr. went 4 for 5, Leo Sternlicht 3 for 3 and Tom Adams 7 for 8.

A high point of this period occurred in 1991 as John Bates Sr. and Jr. defeated Bo Hager and Eric Hager ending in a tiebreaker that went to 11-9. The low point occurred in 1989 when Meeker/Brazelton defeated our team 6-0, 6-0 for the first recorded shutout in team history.

However, all good things must come to an end. The 1993 matches (the 70th competition between the teams) brought renewed spirit to the Wading River Team.

Utilizing the same talent as the previous year, Wading River was able to go from a 5-0 defeat in 1992 to a 3-2 victory in 1993. Proper credit goes to the players, of course, but the team lineup seems to have determined the day as Eric Hager moved to singles and Steve Shapiro to doubles.

The previous year's Shoreham 5-0 victory had been very thin. Leo Sternlicht had edged Steve Shapiro in 3 sets, Tom Adams snuck by Art Jarit in a long third set tiebreaker, and G. Frei and John Bates Jr. bested the Lees in a close 6-4, 7-5 victory. The shift of just a few key points could have turned around all three of those matches.

In 1993 Wading River was not forced to rely on luck for the final edge. In one of the most dramatic endings in recent years, J. Bates and E. Weiss faced the seasoned team of Bo Hager and Steve Shapiro in the deciding match at #1 doubles. The tournament was tied at 2-2 as the third-set of their match was played. Wading River pulled ahead 4-1. John and Ed dug in and fought their way back to 4-4. But in the end, the advantage shifted to Bo and Steve and they closed out the first Wading River victory in nine years.

I have paused at this point to look back over 30 years of my competition in these matches and my many years as a spectator before I made the team. I am amazed at how quickly the years seem to have passed. But my impressions of these years are clear.

I see Gilly Frei, Herb Tastrom and Ed Wattecamps, always able to enliven the days with their clever remarks and good spirits. I see Charlie Ficken, Dave Wilson and Halsey Gosman who seemed to play for an eternity. I recall Wilson playing a furious match against young Mike Heeg in the 1950's. Wilson was then an older man of perhaps 50 years. He seemed to be panting and wheezing between points but to my utter amazement he defeated our teenage wonder.

I am told stories of the captains meetings held the day before the matches. Jim McCrystal and Gilly Frei would meet with Ed Wattecamps and Charlie Woods, Sr. and try to pry the secret lineup from them by plying them with booze. It never worked. The lineups would be exchanged as the matches began.

I remember Ricky Goat, a bright light on our team for three years before his tragic death. I recall the fighting spirit of Jim McCrystal who retired from competition to become our captain for many years. Paul Vermlyen retired from the team to enjoy watching two of his sons Paul, Jr. and David follow in the family tradition of cup competition. The Hager family has been a constant force missing only two matches since 1968.

Of course, I remember how the Preegs terrorized us for years and then Wading River unleashed Bo Hager and Roy Brazelton against us with their frightening overheads. Joe Abata organized the court assignments and order of play with scientific precision. Was it even years for men and odd years for women? Selden Heatley, Ed Wattecamps, Jim McCrystal and Gilly Frei were gracious team captains and hosts as they exchanged the cup over the years. Their good humored speeches always captured the feeling of the community about this long standing tradition. These and many other impressions and memories fill the history of the cup competition.

Each year the folks returned - many of the same faces - many new kids - new friends. Each year the umpires, ball people and linespeople assisted and joined in the spirit of the day.

And each year ended in our mutual celebration of the good will shared between the two neighboring towns.

The second 70 years begins in 1994. I hope it starts with a Shoreham victory. But win or lose, the memories of these years of friendly competition are victory enough for me.

Shoreham Women's Team 1979

WOMEN'S TENNIS

It was men only in the early years of the Shoreham Wading River tennis matches. It wasn't until 1960 and 1961 when the ladies were invited to play, and then only a one set exhibition match. For some years there-after there were no women's exhibitions, but in about 1970 they were begun again with a few games rather than a full set. Women's exhibition matches were played in connection with the annual tournament in 1974, 1977, and 1978. The teams and scores of these matches have been ingraved on the Victor Heatley Tennis Trophy. In 1978 there were enough women playing in both communities to field two full teams, and they enthusiastically petitioned to be included in the competition. There was resistance to the idea by some of the Shoreham men. However a compromise was reached by the establishment of a separate cup for the women, and women's competition has been included for the last sixteen years.

The cup, generously donated by Ivy Frei, has gone back and forth between the 2 communities.
