Please print the application, answer all relevant questions, sign, notarize and submit with the required documents and filing fee. Applications may be mailed or hand delivered.

PLEASE NOTE: Incomplete applications will not be processed.

Frequently Asked Questions:

Do I need an attorney? A hearing before the Zoning Board of Appeals involves matters of fact and law. You may retain an attorney or an expeditor to act as your agent. (See page 6 of the application)

What is a variance? A variance is a form of relief, granted by a zoning board of appeals, to an applicant from a determination made by a village official or entity, that is consistent with the strict application of a regulation, pursuant to local law.

What is the subject matter for a ZBA application? Subject matter for application to the zoning board of appeals is listed on page 2 of the application. Please check the applicable box(s).

For the most part, when a building permit application is denied based upon a regulation in zoning law or other applicable law, or when the Building Department issues a Stop Work Order or a Notice of Violation and Order to Remove a structure that does not necessarily require a building permit, however it's presence violates a regulation in zoning law, or when a building permit application is denied based upon a decision of the Design Review Board; these are examples of how applications to the ZBA may originate.

What is a "Use" variance? A use variance is the authorization by the zoning board of appeals for the use of land for a purpose which is otherwise not allowed or is prohibited by the zoning regulations.

What is an "Area" variance? An area variance is the authorization by the zoning board of appeals for the use of land in a manner which is not allowed by the dimensional or physical requirements of the zoning regulations.

What is Environmental Assessment Form (EAF)? Pursuant to Federal and State law certain applications for a variance require that environmental considerations be assessed as part of the appeal process. PLEASE NOTE: An "Area" variance does NOT require submission of an Environmental Assessment Form (EAF), nor does an appeal from a Design Review Board determination.

What documents are required to be submitted with the application? At minimum, pages 1 thru 5 of the application must be submitted. The required documents (in the quantities listed) that must be submitted with the application are found on pages 4 & 5 of the application.

What is the filing fee for my application? The filing fee for a Zoning Board of Appeals application is determined by the Board of Trustees and is presently $750.00 made payable to the Village of Shoreham.
